

Seven Local Men on List

Top Civil Servants Named

Mr. Kilby

Mr. Pittman

Mr. Schaub

Mr. Miles

Mr. Roseman

Mr. Kirkpatrick

ALLEN V. ASTIN

Seven Washington area residents are among 10 top civil servants named today by the National Civil Service League.

The winners, selected from more than 60 nominations submitted by Federal departments and agencies, will receive awards at a March 15 dinner at the Sheraton-Park Hotel.

Area winners are:

• Allen V. Astin, of 5008 Battery Lane, Bethesda, director of the National Bureau of Standards.

• Edwin L. Kilby, of 5212 Little Falls Road, Arlington, Commissioner of the Public Debt.

• Lyman B. Kirkpatrick Jr., of 207 Orchard Drive, Fairfax, inspector general of the Central Intelligence Agency.

• Rufus E. Miles Jr., of 3309 Cummings Lane, Chevy Chase, director of administration for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

• Franklin K. Pittman, of 4740 Connecticut-av nw, with the Atomic Energy Commission since 1948, and now director of its reactor development division.

• Alvin J. Roseman, 2836 Albemarle-st nw, regional director for far eastern operations, International Cooperation Administration.

• William F. Schaub, 4814 Bradley Boulevard, Chevy Chase, chief of the military division of the U. S. Bureau of the Budget.

The other winners are Eugene Stone Love, assistant chief of the Aero-Physics Division, National Aeronautics and Space Administration, Langley Field, Va., Miss Ethel B. Dietrich, economic officer of the U. S. Mission to NATO in Paris, and Judson D. DeRamus, manager of the Veterans Administration regional office in Winston-Salem, N. C.